

INVITATION

UNIVERSITY OF
JOHANNESBURG

The Future of Diplomacy Research Group at the University of Johannesburg's Institute for the Future of Knowledge (IFK) will hold a hybrid seminar on:

Democracy and Development in Africa: How Far, How Well?

As we mark Africa Day and anticipate the upcoming general elections in South Africa, join us for a dynamic public dialogue on "Democracy and Development in Africa: How Far, How Well." This timely event will explore the progress and challenges of democracy and development across the African continent, with a special focus on the context of South Africa's electoral landscape. Through engaging discussions and diverse perspectives, we aim to assess the achievements and setbacks in promoting democratic governance and sustainable development in Africa, while also considering the implications for South Africa's democratic journey.
